About Rebuilding Together

Founded in 1992, the Springfield Chapter of Rebuilding Together™ has helped hundreds of homeowners throughout the city. Rebuilding Together is the nation’s leading nonprofit with over 200 affiliates working to preserve affordable homeownership and revitalize communities. The organization performs critical repairs to the homes of low-income Americans that consist of: families with children, the elderly, military veterans and the disabled. Rebuilding Together volunteers transform entire neighborhoods, and in the process, transforms lives.
